MIGHTY PEACE ESSENTIALS

12 FOOT DAVIS

Henry Fuller Davis struck it rich in the mid-1800s on a 12 Foot gold claim in northern British Columbia, earning him around $12,000 as well as the "12 Foot Davis" nickname. Spending much of his life as a fur trader on the Peace River, he left his mark on many places in the region. A wooden statue of 12 Foot Davis stands proudly in Riverfront Park, located in downtown Peace River. Just a few kilometres from downtown Peace River, the 12 Foot Davis memorial site overlooks the magnificent Peace Valley at the confluence of the Smoky and Peace Rivers.
